Quote from Pope Francis' Encyclical on the Environment, Laudato Si

'If we look at the larger picture, we can see that more diversified and innovative forms of production which impact less on the environment can prove very profitable' (Par. 191).

Parish Justice and Peace Group

The next meeting of this group takes place this Monday, 4th November, at 7.30 pm in the Parish Centre. New members are most welcome.

Finance Committee and work on the church

The next meeting of the Finance Committee meeting takes place this Tuesday, 5th November, at 7.30 pm in the presbytery, 186 Clontarf Road. I would like to thank the members of the committee under the chairperson, Eugene Gallagher, for attending to the financial management of the parish, especially in regard to the significant work on the church

May they rest in peace

We extend our deepest sympathies to the families of those who were buried from our parish church in the month of October. May eternal light shine upon them: William Noel Dunne, Cyril Freaney, Nuala Lynch and Tom Keenan.

Baptisms

We welcome into the Christian community the children who are to be baptized in our parish church this coming month of November: Martin Ward, Agatha Wilson, Charlotte Turner, Seamus Kenny, Fiadh Mulhall

The history of the church in the parish of Clontarf

Dr. Colm Lennon will give a talk on 'The history of the church in the parish of Clontarf' this Wednesday, 6th November, 7.30 pm, Saint John the Baptist Parish Centre. Dr Colm Lennon lectured in the Department of History in NUI Maynooth. Among his publications are, That Field of Glory: The story of Clontarf, from battleground to garden suburb.

November Mass for the Dead

Next Sunday, 10th November, we celebrate at 5.30 pm our annual parish Mass to remember all who have been buried from our parish church in the past year. All parishioners who have lost a loved one at any time in the past are invited to this Mass. This is a special time when we gather as a parish community to remember our loved ones who have died, to pray for them and for each other.

Buy Early for Christmas
