*Father, this day we celebrate the empty tomb of your Son - your ultimate promise of hope, of life, of love for humanity. May the joy of this Easter morning give us the grace and courage to abandon the tombs we create for ourselves and welcome the resurrection into our lives; to renew and re-create our world in the light of the Risen One; to proclaim in every moment of our lives the Gospel of the Easter Christ.
Amen.*

"Easter is the eternal morning after the darkest, stormiest night. Easter is the stubborn hope of a God who re-creates our world until his dream of a humanity bound in his love is realised. Easter is the risen Christ in our midst, enabling us to mend our lives in his compassion and peace.
The dark night has ended. Morning has broken. Alleluia!"

A happy and blessed Easter to you all. Fr. John.
